

CURRICULUM VITAE

Personal data

Brouwer, H.J.

Born on 8 May 1946 in Amsterdam

Education

- 1972: Degree in general economics, Free University of Amsterdam

Career

- 1972 - 1980: Economist at the Directorate for General Financial and Economic Policy of the Ministry of Finance
- 1980 - end 1983: Deputy Director General for Staff Policy and socio-economic advisor to the Minister at the Ministry of the Interior
- 1984 - end 1989: Director General for General Policy Issues at the Ministry of Social Affairs and Employment
- 1990 - September 1992: Member of the Board of Nederlandse Philipsbedrijven N.V.
- 1 September 1992 - 1 July 1997: Treasurer General at the Ministry of Finance
- since 1 July 1997: Executive Director of De Nederlandsche Bank N.V.
  - 1-7-1997 – 31-12-2008 responsible for economic policy and research, financial markets, financial stability, payments and statistics
  - since 1-1-2009 in charge of banking supervision

Other posts

- Chairman of the International Relations Committee (IRC) of the System of European Central Banks (till end 2008)
- Member of the Economic and Financial Committee (EFC) of the European Union (till end 2008)
- Chairman of the G10 (Group of Ten) Deputies (1999 – 2003)
- Member of the Board of Trustees of Leyden State University (till June 2008)
- Member of the Board of 'Vereniging Hendrick de Keyser'
- Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Rijnland Hospital (till end 2008)
- Member of the Committee of European Integration of the Advisory Council on International Affairs (till end 2008)
- Crown member of the Social and Economic Council of the Netherlands
- Chairman of the Board "Amsterdam Historisch Museum"
- Member of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision (BCBS) (since 2009)
- Member of the Committee of European Banking Supervisors (CEBS) (since 2009)
- Chairman of the Expert Group Prudential Regulation (EGPR) (since 2009)
- Member of the Dutch Foundation for postgraduate medical courses in Indonesia (since 2009)