Attention to (5.1)(2e) De Netherlands bank

APPLICATION FOR FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT 01
.05.2022

Date 04 May 2023

On behalf of the collective represented as African descendents be there continental domicile either African diaspora in totality in one single strand. Africans.Aforementioned representative collectively under the umbrella of a collective African peoples, are hereby submitting a formal application for provision of the data ,information held by the following institution known as an entity Netherlands Bank

Information requested pertaining to the bank's involvement in any form or shape regarding monetary transactions, business establishment ,participation, ownership, trading, direct/indirect influence surrounding slavery under the auspices of the financial institution known and trading as Netherlands bank past and current. Data and information sought should be of much valid assistance towards the deep traumatised scattered globally communities of African heritage.

Netherlands bank could forthright cooperatively furnish the established collective of peoples of Africa with data dating as from 25 March 1814.Earliest dates would provide insider glimmer from the roots of establishing this institution and its connections to transatlantic slavery profiteering, how was the bank direct associated with profits from slavery, in monetary figures how much was known from the earliest beginning when it was associated with transatlantic slavery. Who where the chief beneficiaries, who are known present or past families profiteering, what is the present value of profits from slavery the bank accumulated,

Earliest data stemming from 1814 is historical paramount in shaping our factual historical discourse if therefore the Netherlands bank resists some how in providing the aggrieved African communities with data stemming from 1814 onwards, it would be a counter argument also crippling our pursuit in rewriting yesterday wrongs for the future African generations to be in a historical position to decipher decode dissect and disseminate factual accurate authentic involvement of transatlantic slavery accounts Netherlands bank took part in ,again the apology of the Netherlands bank would be meaningless and prove skeptics factual in rubbishing the apology which many doubted in the first place the onus is upon the bank to come clean and shade off its tainted image.It is not for the bank to play the judge , jury & arbiter either invest millions in public relations consultants to defend its brand.We know it is painful opening these wounds however it has to be at any cost .In our previous correspondence we asked a set of questions, if you are apologising, therefore what are you apologising for ,if related to slavery, furnish us in depth what transpired in order to qualify your apology. Also how are you intending to address these atrocities the bank took part in obviously there were injustices .
